

TRADOC — SHAPING TODAY'S ARMY AND FUTURE COMBAT FORCE

RECRUITS AND TRAINS SOLDIERS:

the centerpiece of the Army:TRADOC builds the Army on a solid foundation of quality people by selecting recruits and transforming them into Soldiers.Soldiers who are physically tough, mentally adaptive and live the Warrior Ethos.They are our ultimate asymmetric advantage and can not be matched by our adversaries – current or future.

DEVELOPS ADAPTIVE LEADERS:

TRADOC trains leaders for certainty and educates them for uncertainty.Leader development produces innovative, flexible, culturally astute professionals expert in the art and science of the profession of arms and able to quickly adapt to the wide-ranging conditions of full spectrum operations.

DESIGNS TODAY'S ARMY MODULAR FORCE AND THE FUTURE COMBAT FORCE:

TRADOC identifies and integrates comprehensive solutions for the Army Modular Force, both today and tomorrow.

MAXIMIZES INSTITUTIONAL LEARNING AND ADAPTATION:

As an integral component of an innovative Generating Force, TRADOC shapes and links it seamlessly to the Operating Force to maximize Army Learning and Adaptation.

Victory Starts Here!

TRADOC operates 33 schools and centers at 16 Army installations. TRADOC schools conduct 1,714 courses (187 directly in support of mobilization) and 391 language courses. The 1,714 courses include 451,682 seats for 399,406 Soldiers; 29,238 other-service personnel; 6,723 international Soldiers; and 15,827 civilians. As you can imagine, there are many ongoing programs and initiatives the command is responsible for. Some TRADOC events that may be of Congressional Interest include:

- Soldier Protection Demonstration (Phase 1). United States Army Infantry Center (USAIC) will conduct a two phased Soldier Protection Demonstration to identify the latest available Soldier Protection systems and gather data on potential impact on Soldier effectiveness. The demonstration will focus on all Soldiers and areas of individual protection.
- Unified Quest Wargame. Serves as a forum for professional discussion between senior Joint, Interagency, and Service leaders and co-sponsored by Commander, US Joint Forces Command and Chief of Staff of the Army. Focus areas for UQ07 include future warfare studies on identifying differences between future irregular warfare and traditional warfare and the associated challenges in the physical, informational, and human domains.
- Wounded Warrior Job Fair 09 Aug. TRADOC is the 2nd major Army command to incorporate the program, which is primarily geared towards service members who have received a 30% or higher disability due to injuries sustained in the Global War on Terrorism

To find out more about any of the above programs, or for general information about how you can request a visit with a specific staff member or organization, or simply would like additional information about a particular topic, please contact the CAO Team at the numbers listed below.

KEY INFORMATION ABOUT TRADOC

TRADOC is an Army Command, but more importantly, it has an enterprise role to drive change across the Army. Headquarters TRADOC is located at Fort Monroe, VA. TRADOC has several major subordinate commands: U.S. Army Accessions Command, headquartered at Fort Monroe; Combined Arms Center, headquartered at Fort Leavenworth, KS., and the Army Capabilities Integration Center, headquartered at Fort Monroe. Other major parts of TRADOC are the Combined Arms Support Center, Fort Lee, VA.; TRADOC Analysis Center, Fort Leavenworth; the Center for Army Lessons Learned, Fort Leavenworth; and the 33 schools. TRADOC's roadmap to transformation and our role within the Generating Force Model (ARFORGEN) is defined in the TRADOC Campaign Plan and Commander's Priorities for TRADOC.

TRADOC Campaign Plan Objectives

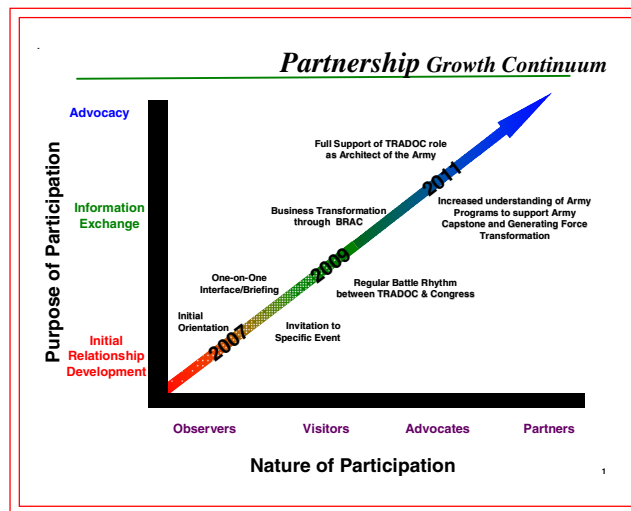

- Recruit, Access and Train Soldiers and Develop Adaptive Leaders
- Posture TRADOC to Support ARFORGEN Implementation
- Reshape the Fundamental Army Learning Process for a Dynamic Operating Environment
- Redesign TRADOC for Excellence
- Adapt Requirements Process
- Support Continued Development of the Generating Force
- Integrate Current and Future Army Modular Force

TRADOC is the Architect of the Army, and "thinks for the Army" to meet the demands of a Nation at war while simultaneously anticipating solutions to the challenges of tomorrow.
